Eating school meals will help support and enrich your students' academic, social and healthy eating behavior skills for the future. Eating the proper nutrition will provide the students with the environment to nourish their physical and mental health.

The Student Nutrition Department follows all US Department of Agriculture Meal Pattern guidelines for healthy school meals. Please encourage your child(ren) to participate in the lunch and breakfast programs by dining in and enjoying our meals at any of the school cafes.

For additional information please contact the Student Nutrition Services Department at (562) 602-6031 Monday-Friday 7:00 am-3:30 pm. The café staff looks forward to serving healthy and nutritious meals to your students.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity.

Program information may be made available in languages other than English. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication to obtain program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the responsible state or local agency that administers the program or USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TTY) or contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339.

To file a program discrimination complaint, a Complainant should complete a Form AD-3027, USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form which can be obtained online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/USDA-OASCR%20P-Complaint-Form-0508-0002-508-11-28-17Fax2Mail.pdf>, from any USDA office, by calling (866) 632-9992, or by writing a letter addressed to USDA. The letter must contain the complainant's name, address, telephone number, and a written description of the alleged discriminatory action in sufficient detail to inform the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights (ASCR) about the nature and date of an alleged civil rights violation. The completed AD-3027 form or letter must be submitted to USDA by:
